FROM THE HOT PEN OF BARB TAFT.....

Does ink ever get too HOT? My rough draft began to flow to the point there was almost a MELT DOWN.

Once more such thoughts bring on the flash back of an old song you may have forgotten or never heard of before: There'll be a Hot Time in the Ole Town Tonight... It's about the Chicago fire of 1871 when a cow kicked a lantern over in the shed. We kicked over some HOT music at the Strawberry Festival & we were fortunate there was a decent breeze through the gazebo. This Band of Older teenagers sure are real troupers!

Our July schedule will be rather "Lite". Several of us have travels to make. Betty Rose will be doing rehab as she had knee surgery. (Recognition of Betty's ability to play 2 drums at one time for our Jefferson performance. Simply AMAZING!)

Also we had a fill-in piano player that Sunday. Our regular ones, Carol Mausling, who has been layed up from foot surgery, and Marge Drought, who knows her limitations when it's too hot, were not able to play. A fella named J.J. Stewart gladly helped us out. Thank you J.J.

As we approach the "Dog Days" of August – remember to drink lots of water so you don't dehydrate! And use the sun block to protect your skin! (advice from Dr. Oz & me too!)

Enjoy every  Note of summer

Barb

P.S. No band rehearsal on the 5th and 12th.
We play the Villages on the 25th at 2:30pm

Plaque given to FOE Eagles #2243 – accepted by Don Micco, and to VFW Post #6846 – accepted by Mel Deems, for recognition of their continued support to the seniors of the Geneva Senior Center.

Wii Bowling Trophy winners: Betty Rose – 1st Place, Ralph Dibble and Ralph Mausling tied for 3rd Place.

Past Geneva Senior Center Kings & Queens: Betty Rose – 2008, Butch and Janet Beers – 2006, Lois Burgett – 2005, Ralph and Carol Mausling – 2009.

2010 SENIOR APPRECIATION DAY

was held on May 28th and was very well attended! The delicious meal was provided by the ladies from Community Action and Phil's Catering– thanks to Tina, Charlene, Ann, and Phil! Geneva Senior Center would like to give a special “Thank You” to Lisa Shepska, Activity Director of Geneva Pointe, for helping to serve cake and to Geneva Pointe for funding the entertainment – the Remember When Band! Thanks, also, to our “mystery lady” who made all the beautiful door prizes! Thanks to Ashtabula County Commissioner Peggy Carlo and State Representative Deborah Newcomb for their kind words. A Very big thank you to our Director, Denny Brown, for all his hard work here at the Senior Center! Thanks to the volunteers and workers who assist the seniors each day and every day. Lastly, thanks so much to all the seniors who not only come to the senior center on special days but come and participate in the daily activities!
